

Written by
Walter Speller
28 Jan 2016

Brunello 2011 separates the wheat from the chaff

- La Gerla 2011 Brunello di Montalcino Tasted blind. Deep ruby with orange tinges. Minerally nose with iron and savoury notes. Soft, round, dried-fruit notes. Plenty of acidity, but doesn't make it really vibrant. Big tannins on the finish. (WS)14.5% Drink 2016-2020