La Gerla 2010 Brunello di Montalcino
Riserva Vigna Gli Angeli

Castelnuovo Dell'abate, Tuscany

Red wine from Italy

Drinking window: 2018 - 2035

Dark cherry, plum, smoke, savory herbs, licorice and cedar make a strong first impression in La Gerla's 2010 Brunello di Montalcino Riserva Vigna Gli Angeli. The bouquet alone is entrancing. Mysterious, deep and totally seductive, the 2010 possesses remarkable depth and tons of nuance. With time in the glass, the Riserva shows riper, more exotic notes. This is an especially virile Brunello, but the tannins aren't that imposing, which means the 2010 will drink well with just a few more years in bottle.

La Gerla 2011 Brunello di Montalcino

Castelnuovo Dell'abate, Tuscany

Red wine from Italy

Drinking window: 2017 - 2026

The 2011 Brunello di Montalcino is dark, sensual and inviting. Succulent red cherry, tobacco, mint, leather, sage and licorice flesh out in a radiant, open-knit Brunello that will drink well upon release. There is a lot to like here, especially the wine's immediacy. The 2011 is not especially complex, but it is beautifully balanced and harmonious from start to finish.

La Gerla 2014 Rosso di Montalcino

Castelnuovo Dell'abate, Tuscany

Red wine from Italy

Drinking window: 2016 - 2018

The 2014 Rosso di Montalcino is an attractive, light-weight wine with modest depth and complexity. Drink it over the next year or two.
